

Award-winning musicians Tomislav Goluban and Nebojša Buhin have combined their best musical weapons - harps (Goluban) and guitars (Buhin) - to create the truly special album 'For a Friend & Brother', featuring 12 instrumental tracks.

The album 'For a Friend & Brother' by Tomislav Goluban and Nebojša Buhin is their musical and personal tribute to Dražen Buhin. Dražen brought these two musicians together during his life but also after he passed away, way too much before his time in 2012. They combined their best musical weapons to create something truly special. The result is a surprisingly diverse and interesting album where Goluban's compositions meet Buhin's arrangements.

TOMISLAV GOLUBAN

www.goluban.com

Croatian blues musician, composer, harmonica player and a singer, is quite unique by his expression. With his passion, sense of humor and catchy appearance, he can really afford your audience an interesting and original show.

He's been playing his harp since 1997, inspired by masters like Sonny Terry, Gary Primich or Joe Filisko, just to name a few whom he still admires today. Performing solo/duo or with a band, he played in the USA (25th IBC, Memphis, TN) and in Europe in 18 countries. Here are just a few events he took part: Notodden Blues Festival (Norway), Amal's Blues Festival (Sweden) and Blues sur Seine (France).

His 6th studio album "Blow Junkie" (2014), debuted at #49 on Roots Music Chart.

DISCOGRAPHY - albums:

NEBOJŠA BUHIN 'NEBO'

www.nebobuhin.com

Born in Bjelovar, Croatia, where he lives today, Nebo started playing guitar at age 13., without formal musical education, influenced by the blues (E. Clapton, R. Ford, R. Cray, SRV), pop-rock- jazzy (Stelly Dan, Dire Straits, Tom Waits) and more guitar oriented records (Al Di Meola, M. Landau) from 70's/ 80's.

Nebo works as a studio and session musician in Croatia. He released 6 instrumental albums. His music is described as a mixture of pop-rock with bluesy and jazzy flavours and strong melody.

Nebo has performed in front of some great guitar players - Johnny Winter, Greg Koch,... With his band he performed at International blues challenge (IBC) in Memphis (USA) in January 2010.

DISCOGRAPHY - albums:

For a Friend & Brother (Spona, 2015)

Six string Diary (Dallas Records, 2011)

Guitar Language (Dallas Records, 2007)

Nebo plays Christmas Songs (Dallas Records, 2007)

10 Guitar Stories (Dallas Records, 2003)

Bejb (Dallas Records, 1999)

Dražen or, "Buha" as he was known, was one of the most impressive thinkers and organizers I ever met in the blues world.
